Congratulations—to the Junior Show Jumping Team representing our Club at the recent Riding Clubs Area 15 Qualifier. The Team won with members of the team coming 1st, 2nd, & 3rd

The summer sun continued to shine for the Summer Show on 7th July. However the only downside was the ground which had suffered being very hard, although some grass cover did help even if it was rather dried out!

It was wonderful to see excellent entries in a number of the showing classes with the Best Turned Out in particular being a very high level right down the line.

Our judge commented some classes were harder to judge than Horse of the Year show qualifiers! Our only disappointment was a lack of entries for the Jumping, although the dry ground and PC qualifiers may have had an impact, we hope to see some more competition at our next couple of shows don't forget we have trophies for each jumping class at the trophy show. Unfortunately we decided not to run the games section due to the increasing temperatures and ground conditions. Well done to everyone that took part.

IMPORTANT NOTICE—Extraordinary General Meeting of Members of Llantwit Major & District Riding Club at the Trophy Show 16th September 12.00 noon (Outside Field Shelter or in barn if show is cancelled).

We are calling this meeting to discuss the proposal for the Club to register at Companies House as a Company Limited by Guarantee. The Committee believe that this is the correct structure to take the club forward. We would more than welcome any members questions regarding this proposal before the meeting on the 16th September. Currently the Committee members are working on bringing the current Club Constitution into a Articles of Association and the proposed final draft will be published on the web site 10 days before the meeting to enable members to view. Please contact the Chairman should you require more information.
